Monday, 21. 06. 2021 (10.00 – 12.00 CET)

Digital and visual storytelling, planning and development of a video project, scriptwriting, storyboarding, filming with a mobile phone, sound recording with a mobile phone.

Wednesday, 23. 06. 2021 (10.00 – 12.00 CET)

Video editing with free software for a mobile phone and a PC: editing of image and sound, subtitling.

The workshop is intended to strengthen the video skills of organizations to master digital storytelling in the field of inclusion, engagement, and promotion of active citizens and volunteers. It covers all the basic skills and procedures necessary for making a short video by using a mobile phone. From conceptualisation and camera skills through to editing and presenting to the audience. The workshop is structured around a practical project of making a short video presenting a volunteer's experience.

The workshop will be led by Aliaksandra Ihnatovich, an educator, visual culture researcher and communication specialist. Aliaksandra has almost 10 years of experience in mentoring various film/video/media workshops for youngsters and adults with a focus on groups with fewer opportunities, NGO representatives and activists. Aliaksandra makes documentaries and experimental films and writes about media and visual culture.
